S.R.O. 235.—The following bye-laws for the control and proper regulation of Flour and Oil Mills in the Saugor Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Saugor, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of Section 282 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of Section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS

1. In these byelaws, “flour mill” means any mill manufacturing flour and “oil mill” means any mill crushing oil or other seeds, which is run by electricity or oil.

2. No person shall establish or maintain a flour or oil mill except under a licence in the form annexed to these byelaws issued by the Board.

3. The building or premises in which a flour or oil mill is proposed to be installed shall be:—

- (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrines and cesspits.
- (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure.

- (iii) paved with concrete or cement and, having a celling roof, properly ventilated and lighted.
4. The flour mill shall only grind food grain which are properly cleaned.
5. No engine or dynamo of more than 10 H.P. shall be installed for a flour mill. The maximum Horse Power of engine or dynamo required for an oil mill shall be sanctioned by the Cantonment Board in each individual case. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of building in such a manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.
6. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height fixed to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.
7. The mill shall be worked only between such hours as are prescribed by the Cantt. Board in this behalf from time to time and shall be open to inspection during this period by the officers and servants of the Board who are authorised to do so.
8. The premises, apparatus and the containers used, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease, by the authorised Medical Authority.
9. Application for the licence referred to in byelaw 3 above shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these byelaws.
10. A breach of any of these byelaws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first day during which the failure or contravention has been persisted in.
11. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of these byelaws, his licence shall be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction.
